

Forum Aim

Redditch Road & Path Cycling Club (RRPCC) Forum is intended to provide an online meeting place for the cycling community - open to members and non-members alike. This should ease communication for arranging rides and social events.

General Guidelines

Please be aware, it is easy to cause offence on message boards by, for example, a poor choice of words or providing inadequate context. Thus we would urge you to use diplomacy in your posts wherever controversy emerges. This isn't to say you cannot have frank exchange of views with those you know to be robust posters.

However, avoid personal attacks - please stick to the subject of the debate.

If you think things are getting out of hand or you or anybody else is subject to personal attack - do not respond - contact a moderator.

Inappropriate material which is deemed unfit for our members will be removed. Please understand that a wide range of ages read our board and what may not cause offence to one age range could well offend another.

Do not post the same Topic on more than one board

Please do not duplicate posts across different boards. This confuses and annoys other posters, it causes more work for the moderators. The vast majority of posters check all the sections anyway so duplicate posts will be removed without notification.

Commercial

Postings of a commercial nature will be removed without warning, unless previously approved for posting by the Website Secretary.

Registration and viewing

Anybody can read the majority of posts on this forum, but registration is required in order to post and will be vetted by the Website Secretary. Some headings are only available for viewing and posting by RRPCC members. You need to be logged in to see all available topics.

For Sale & Wanted

When buying/selling please use the private messaging facility to keep your contact details away from public view.

Using Avatars

You may use an Avatar. The installation facility will be found in your User Profile. Please ensure the avatar is suitable for all of our members to see. If the avatar is considered unsuitable by the Website Secretary then you will be asked to remove or change it. If you continue to use an unsuitable avatar you may be banned from using the forum.

Privacy & Security

We will do all we can to keep your personal information safe & secure, but there is always a possibility that the board will be hacked. Please bear that in mind before adding too much personal detail.
